

On/Off Found is a memory puzzle game where players try to find replaced objects in a room or try to find objects that is essential for escaping from the room.

General game loop is some activities in between the time during lights on and off.